

Building Communities: Telling Maryland's Story Through Historic Architecture

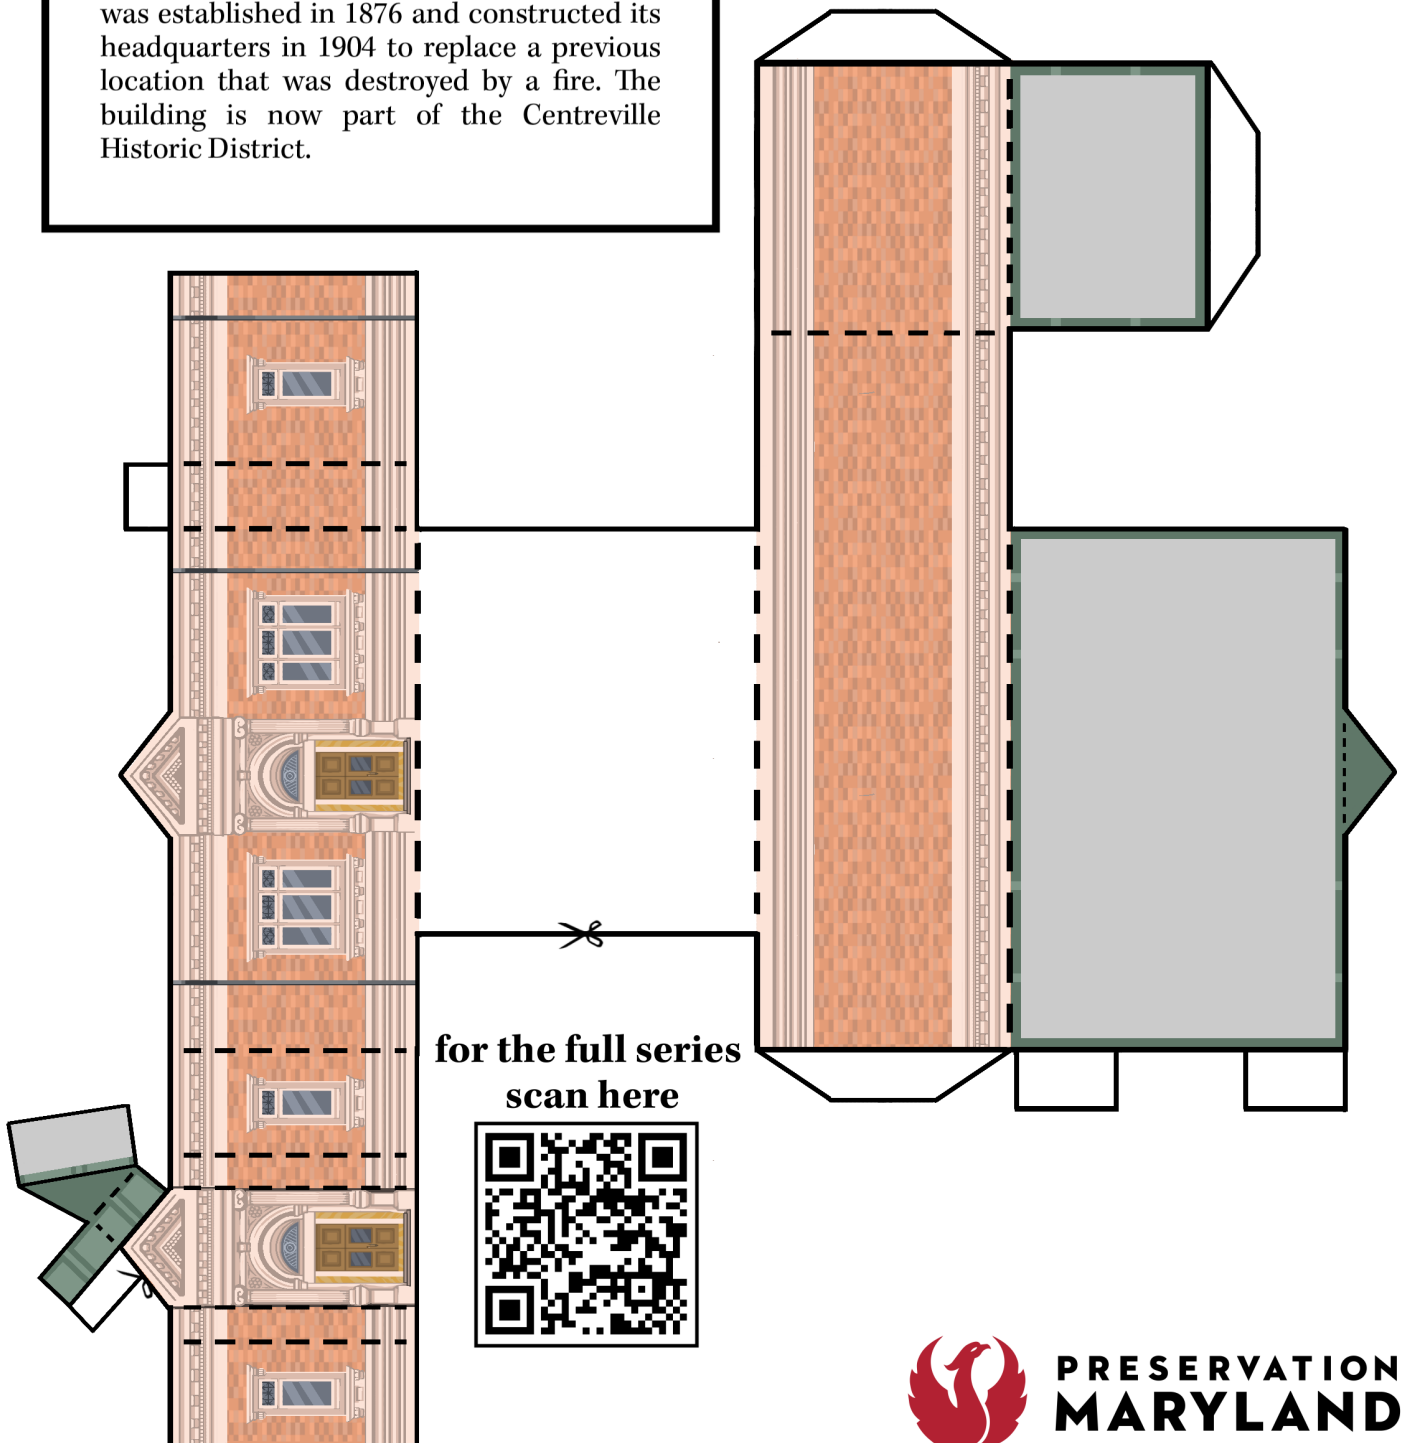

Centreville National Bank

Preservation Maryland Funding Recipient

Queen Anne's County, Md.

ca. 1904

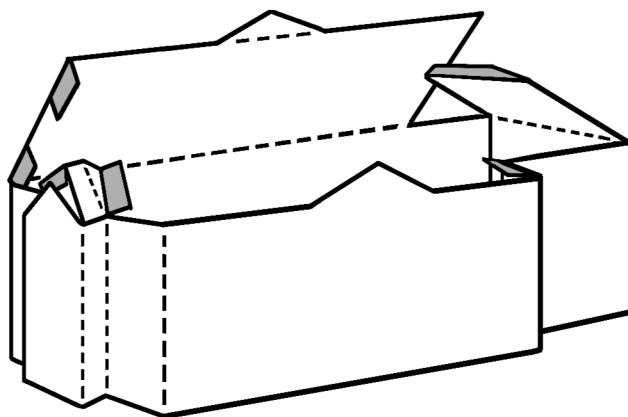

The Centreville National Bank of Maryland was established in 1876 and constructed its headquarters in 1904 to replace a previous location that was destroyed by a fire. The building is now part of the Centreville Historic District.

Protecting Our Past, Investing in Our Future

Preservation Maryland is a nonprofit dedicated to revitalizing and reinvesting in communities, advocating for historic places, and building the historic trades workforce for the benefit of all Marylanders. This paper model is part of our Building Communities series, which highlights the history and architecture of Maryland's historic structures—and the ongoing impact they have on the communities where they reside. To support Preservation Maryland and our Historic Property Redevelopment Program, visit www.presmd.org/donate.

Support for this project comes from the Maryland 250 Commission, celebrating Maryland's rich 250-year history.

Instructions

Cut out the buildings along the solid edge of the structure, leaving in the tabs. Fold the paper along the dotted lines. Glue the shaded tabs to the areas shown in the example image above. Glue each separate structure to the indicated areas in the drawing above.
